

Risk Solutions Captive, Inc. featured as Industry Leader in Tennessee Report 2017

Hendersonville, TN (December 16, 2016) — William C. Beeler, President of Risk Solutions Captive, Inc. (RSC), was recently interviewed by and featured in the Tennessee Report 2017 as a result of the company's position as an industry thought leader and expert in the captive insurance market. The report is focused on the growth of captives in Tennessee since 2011 and highlighted RSC championing its' continued success into 2017.

This is the second installment of the Tennessee Report and it features education and marketing information on captive owners and prospective owners regarding captive options in the state of Tennessee. The report's mission is to direct captive clients to the Tennessee marketplace to share captive expertise and the value of related services.

As a veteran in the captive space, Beeler was asked to discuss the recent trends in self-funding and how a captive may be the right solution for companies looking to stabilize their healthcare costs despite the unpredictability of current healthcare reform.

"I am honored to represent our company in such a renowned publication and offer insight for companies looking to get out of the fully-insured model," said Beeler. "RSC understands the pressure companies are facing with potential regulatory changes; we are confident that, together, we can navigate the uncertain waters and continue to provide stability and savings for our clients."
